2026 Distinguished Graduate

Jeffrey Vaccaro Jr., Founder and CEO of Jeff Vaccaro Companies, is a proud 2015 graduate whose life and work reflect the values formed during his Catholic education. A parishioner of St. Mary Magdalen in Abbeville, Jeff credits his Catholic schooling for shaping his mind, heart, and soul. He believes deeply that knowledge must be grounded in faith, service, and a commitment to keeping Christ at the center of one's life.

After graduating, Jeff launched Jeff Vaccaro Companies, where he has successfully built, expanded, and sold multiple hospitality businesses. His entrepreneurial spirit is matched by his dedication to family and community. He and his wife, Courtney, share a life rooted in faith, gratitude, and service.

Jeff's commitment to giving back is evident in his many contributions. He serves as a director of The Luke Falgout Foundation, supports St. Michael High School by broadcasting football games, and remains actively involved in his home parish through ACTS retreats. In both his professional and personal life, Jeff seeks to serve others, embodying the leadership, compassion, and integrity encouraged by Catholic education. In January, Jeff will be honored at the 2026 Diocese of Baton Rouge Distinguished Graduate Dinner.
